

hearts with small, doable, daily bites. You'll look at how to memorize Scripture in Bible study groups or local church settings as well as with children and friends.

Scripture memorization is the path we travel to obey God's command to meditate on His Word. You will be transformed as the Bible takes root in your heart. The more we know His Word, the more we will—with the help of the Holy Spirit—be shaped like Jesus. You can do this! Memorizing Scripture shows you how!

10:30am Worship Service

Today @ RHBC

We Welcome You! and trust you will be blessed as you worship with us! If you're new to our church, we are so glad to have you with us! Washrooms can be found at the bottom of each staircase off the front entrance. There is another set of washrooms near the nursery on the lower level. If you have any questions at all, please reach out to Pastor Jake, one of the deacons or send an email to Nicole Smith-Bulsara in the church office at info@richmondhillbaptist.org

Join us today for our morning service. The Lord's supper will also be observed. We have an upcoming baptism and we are in dialogue with a number of potential new members. If you are interested in considering baptism or church membership please speak to one of the elders: Pastor Jake, Danny Fingas & Andrew Black.

What: Book Study: Memorizing Scripture by Glenna Marshall

speak to Dale Belvedere if you have questions

July's Book of the Month:

Bible memory has fallen on hard times. It can feel unnecessary since we have Scripture at our fingertips. Or it just feels daunting and unattainable—you know it's important, but you're just not good at it.

Writer, mother, and lover of Scripture Glenna Marshall shows us that to love God with our hearts, we must first love him with our minds.

Through Scripture memorization, we begin to meditate on God's word. This causes us to think deeply about God, which leads to intimacy and trust. Scripture memory bolsters our daily faith, grows us in discernment, and gives us courage to walk through trials. It arms us with what we need to share the gospel, to fight sin, and to encourage our brothers and sisters in Christ!

But how and where do we begin? Glenna gives us practical tools! Even long passages or books of the Bible can be hidden in our
